Note to Dependent Students:

To determine who is considered a parent for purposes of this form (note that grandparents, foster parents, and legal guardians are not considered parents on this form unless they have legally adopted you):

- If your parents are both living together (unmarried or married), include them both in the household listing and base questionnaire on their household
- If your parents are divorced or separated, only include in the household listing the parent you lived with more during the past 12 months and base the questionnaire on his/her household. PLEASE NOTE: If your parent is remarried as of the day you completed your FAFSA, you must include your stepparent in the household listing.
- If parent is widowed or single, include this parent in the household listing and base this questionnaire on his/her household. If your widowed parent is remarried as of the day you completed your FAFSA, include the parent and stepparent.

Whom to include from your parents' household (in Section A of this form):

- Yourself and your parents (including your stepparent; see above), even if you do not live with your parents; and
- Your parents' other children, even if they don't live with your parents, if:
 - a. Your parents will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2018 to June 30, 2019, or
 - b. The children would be required to provide parental information when applying for federal student financial aid; and
- Other people if they now live with your parents, your parents will provide more than half of their support AND will continue to provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2018 to June 30, 2019.

Note to Independent Students:

Whom to include in your household (in Section A of this form):

- Yourself and, if you are married, your spouse; and
- Your children, if you will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2018 to June 30, 2019 (also include any unborn children who will be born between July 1, 2018 and June 30, 2019); and
- Other people if they now live with you, you provide more than half of their support, AND you will continue to provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2018 and June 30, 2019.
